

CALL FOR BOOK CHAPTERS

Submission Guidelines

AI-Native Sustainable University Framework

Authors are invited to prepare their chapters based on evidence-based practices, successful institutional initiatives, documented outcomes, innovations, and real-world implementation experiences. Contributions should demonstrate practical lessons, measurable impact, and future-oriented recommendations.

1 Title

A clear, specific, and relevant title aligned with one of the book themes.

2 Author Information

- Author name(s)
- Affiliation / Institution
- Email address

3 Abstract

150–300 words summarizing the chapter's focus, approach, key findings, and contribution.

4 Keywords

Provide 3–5 keywords relevant to the chapter.

5 Introduction

Include:

- Background and context
- Importance of the topic
- Current challenges or knowledge gaps
- Conceptual or theoretical background
- Literature review / state of the art

6 Methodology / Approach

Where applicable, describe:

- Research or analytical methods
- Framework or approach used
- Institutional implementation approach

7 Results & Discussion / Case Study / Application

Where applicable, include:

- Key findings
- Institutional case study or practical application
- Tables, figures, diagrams, or examples

- Evidence supporting the discussion
- Practical, theoretical, or policy implications
- Critical perspectives and emerging issues

8 Future Recommendations & Conclusions

Address:

- Future opportunities
- Technological or policy developments
- Remaining challenges
- Recommendations for researchers, practitioners, or policymakers

9 References

Include key references using a consistent citation style, such as APA.

10 Acknowledgement

Include acknowledgements where applicable.

11 Author Biography

Provide a short biography of each author, if required.

RECOMMENDED LENGTH

3–5 pages, approximately 1,500–2,500 words, excluding references.

SUBMISSION

Please prepare your chapter proposal or manuscript according to the above guidelines and submit it as an email attachment.

Email: iaup-bd2026@daffodilvarsity.edu.bd

Subject: Call for Book Chapters – AI-Native Sustainable University Framework – [Author Name]